Hi Glen, thanks for your email, but again, ethically, we cannot speak to you without Richard being present. I have copied Richard here, and he can let us know if he will consent to us speaking with you without his presence.

Please also forward us your emails/texts/etc that you referred to on the call, regarding your comments to the settlement agreement. We would like to get your comments and concerns to our clients ASAP so we can get this all squared away. As we noted on the phone, your sending us those documents constitutes a waiver of attorney-client privilege between you and Richard as to those documents. We agree that your sending us those emails does not constitute a waiver of privilege beyond those specific documents.

Thanks,
Linna
